

Legal Declaration

1. Legal status and location

GYM One is open source web software developed and managed in Hungary. It has no formal legal identity as it operates as an online initiative, as free software.

2. Description of service

GYM One provides free gym software for those interested. Its basic aim is to make it easier for those who download and use the software to manage their fitness activities.

3. Disclaimer of liability

GYM One accepts no liability for any damage, injury or loss of data resulting from the use of the software. Use of the software is entirely at your own risk. Due to the free nature of the software, we cannot guarantee that it will function without errors, although every effort will be made to ensure that the software contains as few errors as possible.

4. Data management

The GYM One installer only records the number of downloads. In addition, Google Analytics collects anonymous data about website visitors, which is treated confidentially. We take all possible measures to ensure data security, but any data leaks are the sole responsibility of the gym, not the software.

5. Health declaration

No health declaration is required to use the GYM One software. Gyms are responsible for their own activities and any injuries sustained in the gym, subject to their own rules and regulations.

6. Rules and age limit

The age rating of the software is currently not officially defined. However, based on best practice and content recommendations, the use of the software is recommended for users over 12 years of age. Please note that the content and functionality of the software may not be appropriate for users under 12 years of age.

Each gym sets its own rules of use.

7. Software terms of use and violations

By using the GYM One software, users accept the terms and conditions of the LICENSE. In case of breach of these terms and conditions, they may be immediately excluded from using the software in accordance with the provisions of the Code of Conduct.

8. Resolving disputes

GYM One shall not be liable for any legal disputes arising in connection with the software. Such matters must be handled by the gym in question in accordance with the rules of its own country.

9. Warranties and risks

GYM One does not warrant the operation of the software or that it is error-free. Any risk associated with the use of the software is assumed by the user.

10. Final provisions

This disclaimer covers the entire operation of GYM One and applies to all users who download and use the software. We may update the contents of this statement from time to time and will post any changes on the GYM One website.
